

3. (con't) Name of business District of Columbia Emancipation Day Foundation, Inc.
4101 South Dakota Avenue, NE
Washington, DC 20017

Title or position President

Gwendolyn Orange, spouse of Vincent Orange, is also a member of the five person board. The other three board members are not related to Vincent Orange.

During February of 2001, the District of Columbia Emancipation Day Foundation, Inc. was organized to preserve the history of the District of Columbia with respect to the freedom of DC slaves on April 16, 1862.

The 2001 DC Emancipation Day Foundation Activities consisted of a golf tournament on April 13, an Image Awards Gala on April 14, and a Gospel Fest on Freedom Plaza and Fireworks on Pennsylvania Avenue on April 16.

Three DC Emancipation Day Foundation Activities sponsorships were purchased by Interior Systems, Inc. for $5,000; D.C. Chartered Health Plan, Inc. for $4,000; and D.C. Lottery and Charitable Games Control Board for $5,000. The seller of the sponsorships were Vincent Orange. The sponsors received the following:

- *Golf Foursome
- *Logo on Golf Hole
- *Distribution of Sponsor items
- *Cart and banner signage
- *Full page ad
- *table of ten at Gala
- *Acknowledgement & signage at Gala
- *Signage at Gospel Fest
- *Logo on publicity flyers
- *Radio Acknowledgement
- *Acknowledgement at Gospel Fest

The DC Emancipation Foundation, Inc. ended the calendar year 2001 with accounts payable in the amount of $4,501.39. Volume America is owed $1,001.39 from the Image Awards Gala and Vincent Orange is owed $3,500 that he loaned the Foundation.